RULES
The District 7 Horse Show will be conducted according to the official rules of the Texas 4-H Horse Show, plus additional stipulations outlined in these rules. Review the State Rules with your exhibitors. New State rule revisions are highlighted with red, made as per State 4-H Horse Committee recommendations.

The current Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations can be found at the following address:

http://animalscience.tamu.edu/academics/equine/state-4h-show/

Horses must be validated by May 1. Horses not validated on or before May 1 are ineligible for District and State Horse Shows.

The current Texas Animal Health Commission regulation states that all equine must have a negative test for EIA conducted within the previous 12 months. This will include both the District 7 4-H Horse Show and Texas 4-H Horse Show.

ENTRIES
Entries will be submitted online via 4-H CONNECT ONLINE REGISTRATION by the deadline. Entry forms will be available for download during registration and must also be submitted to the District 7 Office in addition to entering online.

Entry forms should be typed. A District Entry Form must be submitted for each horse entering the District Contest. The Minor’s Release on the back of the District entry forms must be signed by the exhibitor and parent to be accepted.

State Horse Show entries will be completed on 4-H Connect.

Members can sign up for State Horse Show but agents will not approve them until after the district Horse Show is over.
County Extension agents will need to compile all entries from the county and submit all entry forms to the District Office. Submit the following items for EACH HORSE entering the District Contest:

- A completed District entry form and Minor’s Release on back signed
