RULES

The District 7 Horse Show will be conducted according to the official rules of the Texas 4-H Horse Show, plus additional stipulations outlined in these rules. Review the State Rules with your exhibitors. New State rule revisions are highlighted with red, made as per State 4-H Horse Committee recommendations. The judge's ruling is final for results and rule interpretation.

The current Texas 4-H Horse Show Rules and Regulations can be found at the following address:

<https://animalscience.tamu.edu/livestock-species/equine/state-4h-show/>

Horses must be validated by May 1. Horses not validated on or before May 1 are ineligible for District and State Horse Shows.

The current Texas Animal Health Commission regulation states that all equine must have a negative test for EIA conducted within the previous 12 months. This will include both the District 7 4-H Horse Show and Texas 4-H Horse Show.
