DISTRICT 7 4-H LEADERS 4 LIFE CONTEST GUIDELINES, RULES AND REGULATIONS

AGE DIVISIONS

The following contestant ages are as of August 31, 2024:

- JUNIOR – age 8 and in the 3rd grade to 8th grade (Juniors and Intermediates are competing together and the Junior team guidelines are included in this letter. Intermediate scorecards in the state packet will be utilized)
- SENIOR – 9th grade to 12th grade (Maximum age- 18 as of August 31, 2024)

ENTRIES

County Extension agents will need to compile all entries from the county and make one entry for the entire county. An unlimited number of senior teams and junior teams may enter the contest; the top three (3) senior teams will advance to State 4-H Roundup. This contest will be a Tuesday contest at State 4-H Roundup.

Teams will consist of four (4) to six (6) members. No individuals will be allowed in this contest.

NEW POLICY

- Requests for accommodations must be submitted to the District Office from the County Office at least 2 weeks prior to the event.
- This request must be accompanied by official documentation in one of the following options for why the request is being submitted :
 - A) Official doctor's note from a licensed medical professional
 - B) School documentation and/or evaluation from a public institution
 - C) Official evaluation from a licensed professional therapist and/or diagnostician
- Note: The documentation and request are required within the appropriate timeline outlined for the event in order for the accommodation to be considered but does not guarantee that the requested accommodation can be made.
- The request will be reviewed by the district office (and when necessary, in consultation with the state office).
- Request and documentation will be kept confidential within the appropriate county/district staff and event administrators.

REGISTRATION & FEE – ALL MUST REGISTER ON 4-H ONLINE

- $10 per contestant

Each county will submit an entry form to the District Office for TEAM entries. Any individual/team not registered that show up to contest will not be allowed to compete.

The registration fee will be $10 per contestant which helps covers location, insurance, and program materials.
All contestants will need to pay the registration fee.

There will be NO REFUNDS for teams/individuals that don't show up to the contest. If you miss the registration deadline you will be required to pay the late registration fee.

CONTEST ELIGIBILITY

- Each team will be composed of four to six members in the same age division (see the Age Divisions section for age categories).
- Team members must come from the same county and be enrolled in 4-H in the county they represent.
- The top three (3) teams in the senior age division advance to the state contest at Texas 4-H Roundup. The first-place team at the state contest is eligible to represent Texas at the National 4-H Parliamentary Procedure Contest held in Denver, Colorado, at the Western National 4-H Roundup. This contest is held in January of the following year.
- Teams and/or individual members of a team are ineligible to compete again on a Leaders 4 Life Skill-A-Thon team at the state level if they have participated at the National 4-H Parliamentary Procedure Contest as the official Texas Parliamentary Procedure Team.
- To be eligible for participation in National 4-H competitive events, contestants must not have participated in official post-secondary (university, college, junior college, or technical school) competitive events of a similar nature in the same subject-matter area. They also cannot be members of post-secondary team training for a post-secondary event of the same nature. For example, a contestant who has competed in an official collegiate parliamentary procedure contest, either on or off campus, is ineligible to compete in the National 4-H Parliamentary Procedure Contest.

Up to two additional team members can be in any position—such as reporter or recreation leader—or just as members of the club. Officer positions are determined by the team in advance. The teams will present a simulated 4-H meeting, not to exceed 15 minutes in length. For every minute over the 15-minute limit, five points will be deducted from the average score. That is, meetings over 15 minutes will get a five-point deduction; over 16 minutes a 10-point deduction, over 17 minutes a 15-point deduction, and so on. This will be taken care of in tabulation. The timekeeper will keep track of the length of presentations and provide the information to tabulation. A skeleton agenda will also be provided. Each team must provide its own minutes, treasurer's report, letter of communication, and committee report. Prepared scripts are not allowed. Contest officials will check these materials before the team enters the planning room and collect them at the end of its presentation. The team will be given one problem to incorporate into its presentation. The problem may incorporate any of these motions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Put a motion before the assembly (main motion) Lay on the table Amend a motion Division of the assembly Take from the table Withdraw a motion Division of a question Refer a motion to a committee Rise to a point of order Appeal the decision of the chair Previous question Rescind a motion Reconsider a motion Postpone a motion definitely Postpone a motion indefinitely Object to the consideration of the question Before the demonstration, each team will have 15 minutes to discuss the order of business and the problems of new business with fellow teammates in the planning room.
